

Grade 7 Summer Reading

Students entering seventh grade in September will read TWO books over the summer: ONE is I Am Malala, the Young Readers Edition, and the second is any book of your choosing. Students should be expected to write about both works when we return to school in September, so reading actively is required. Happy Reading!

I Am Malala, Young Readers Edition* by Malala Yousafzai and Patricia McCormick

Winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, Malala Yousafzai chronicles her fight against oppressive Taliban rule. She sheds light on the people and experiences that made her a world-renowned activist and the events that led up to the October 9, 2012 event that almost cost her her life.
